Directions to the Clock Tower, 21 Idsworth Court:

If you come along the A339 Basingstoke to Newbury road, turn right at Rooksdown roundabout, first exit at the next roundabout, second exit at the next roundabout, turn left at the next mini roundabout, first right into Knowle Road, bear right at Canadian Way, keep on going until you see the entrance to Idsworth Court. You will know that you have the right building as there is a blue clock tower on the roof. As you come into the entrance, bear right and there are two visitor's spaces next to the wooden hut or park alongside the grass. The entrance is at the front of the building.

Alternatively, come along the A340 towards Tadley and turn left, you will have St Michael's hospice on your left and Parklands Hospital on your right. Follow the road along, ignoring the sign that says authorised personnel only. At the roundabout, 2nd exit, bear right on Park Prewett Road, turn left into Elder Road, bear left at Watertower Way, keep on going until you see the entrance to Idsworth Court. You will know that you have the right building as there is a blue clock tower on the roof. As you come into the entrance, bear left and there are two visitor's spaces next to the wooden hut or park alongside the grass. The entrance is at the front of the building.
